Equity One Files Preliminary Proxy Nominating Two Independent Trustees to Ramco-Gershenson Properties Trust Board

Equity One Believes Electing Its Nominees is Best Way to Ensure Objective and Effective Review of Strategic Alternatives for Ramco-Gershenson

NORTH MIAMI BEACH, FL – April 21, 2009 – Equity One, Inc. (NYSE: EQY), an owner, developer and operator of shopping centers, announced today that it filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission preliminary proxy materials nominating two highly qualified independent trustees for election to the board of trustees of Ramco-Gershenson Properties Trust (NYSE: RPT) (“RPT”) at RPT’s 2009 annual meeting. Based on current SEC filings, Equity One is RPT’s single largest unaffiliated shareholder, owning approximately 9.6% of RPT’s outstanding common shares of beneficial interest.

RPT has notified the New York Stock Exchange that its 2009 annual meeting will be held on June 10, 2009. Equity One’s two independent nominees, David J. Nettina and Matthew L. Ostrower, each have extensive business and finance experience in the real estate industry, and if elected would serve as Class III trustees of RPT to constitute two of the seven members of the RPT board of trustees. Equity One has no previous business relationship with either Mr. Nettina or Mr. Ostrower, and believes that both are “independent” of RPT under all applicable New York Stock Exchange and SEC standards.

Equity One is asking RPT shareholders to support the election of its two independent nominees because it believes that the current members of RPT’s board of trustees are not acting, and will not act, in the best interests of RPT shareholders to evaluate objectively and effectively RPT’s business and strategic alternatives in order to maximize value for all RPT shareholders. In response to a letter sent to RPT by Equity One on March 20, 2009 which expressed concern about a number of matters of importance to all RPT shareholders, including RPT’s high leverage, near-term debt maturities and minimal access to capital, RPT publicly announced on March 25 that it was undergoing a review of potential strategic and financial alternatives. While RPT stated that it intends to complete its review of potential alternatives promptly, to date no progress or results from that review have been announced.

Equity One also noted that RPT has publicly stated that it intends to consider and take steps to implement a shareholder proposal that was strongly supported by RPT shareholders at its 2008 annual meeting which called for the RPT board to “take the steps necessary to eliminate classification of terms” on the RPT board of trustees. Based on information provided in RPT’s public filings, over 11 million shares (well over a majority of all the outstanding shares) were cast in favor of the shareholder proposal. However, more than 10 months after that proposal was overwhelmingly approved by a majority of RPT shareholders, RPT’s board has still taken no action with respect to eliminating its staggered board.

“Ramco-Gershenson has significantly underperformed its peers over the past 10 years,” said Jeffrey Olson, Chief Executive Officer of Equity One, “and time is of the essence as it undertakes its review of strategic and financial alternatives to address its looming debt maturities and lack of access to capital. As the largest unaffiliated shareholder of Ramco-Gershenson, Equity One strongly believes that RPT shareholders should have independent representation on RPT’s board as it explores strategic alternatives.

We believe electing our two independent and highly qualified nominees is the best way for Ramco-Gershenson shareholders to ensure that the RPT board will conduct a meaningful and objective strategic review process and take action in the best interests of RPT shareholders.”

“Our nominees are committed to working with Ramco-Gershenson trustees to maximize value for all RPT shareholders,” continued Olson, “and will seriously consider any value creation opportunity from a possible business combination with a qualified partner, including Equity One.”

Biographical information on each of Equity One’s nominees follows:

David J. Nettina, 56, was a senior executive with American Financial Realty Trust, a publicly-traded real estate investment trust, from March 2005 to April 2008, serving most recently as its president and chief financial officer where he managed the strategic alternative process that ultimately led to a successful sale of the company to Gramercy Capital Corp. in a deteriorating market. From September 2002 to January 2005, Mr. Nettina served as an adjunct professor of finance at Siena College. From 1997 to 2001, Mr. Nettina was an executive officer, most recently the president and chief operating officer, of SL Green Realty Corp., a publicly-traded real estate investment trust, which owns and operates a portfolio of office properties in New York City. Prior to SL Green, Mr. Nettina held various executive management positions for more than 10 years with The Pyramid Companies, a developer, owner and operator of 20 regional malls in the Northeast, including positions as the chief financial officer and as a development partner. Mr. Nettina is currently the president and co-chief executive officer of Career Management, LLC, an emerging technology company, and is a principal of Briarwood Capital Group, LLC, which he founded in July 2001 to manage his family investment activities. Mr. Nettina received a B.S. in 1974 and a Masters of Business Administration in 1976 from Canisius College. He is also a member of the National Association of Corporate Directors.

Matthew L. Ostrower, 38, was a member of Morgan Stanley’s Equity Research department from July of 2000 until April of 2008, serving as a Vice President, Executive Director and, most recently, a Managing Director. He was responsible for coverage of retail real estate investment trusts (REITs), publishing research opinions and investment recommendations from 2000 until 2006, when he assumed leadership of the REIT research group and initiated coverage for a wider range of companies. Mr. Ostrower left Morgan Stanley in 2008 to pursue opportunities in the commercial real estate industry. Mr. Ostrower has a Masters of Science in Real Estate and a Masters in City Planning from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and a B.A. from Tufts University. He is also a Chartered Financial Analyst.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. Specific forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts and include, without limitation, words such as "may," "will," "expects," "believes," "anticipates," "plans," "could" or the negative of such terms or other variations on such terms or comparable terminology. Similarly, statements that describe Equity One's objectives, plans or goals are forward-looking and are based on management's current intent, belief, expectations, estimates and projections regarding Equity One and Ramco-Gershenson and projections regarding the industries in which they operate. Although Equity One believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are based upon reasonable assumptions, it can give no assurance that these expectations will be achieved and actual results could differ materially from current expectations. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations include changes in macro-economic conditions and the demand for retail space in the states in which Equity One and Ramco-Gershenson own properties; continuing supply constraints in applicable geographic markets; the effects of natural and other disasters; the Equity One nominees' ability, if elected, to influence Ramco-Gershenson's board of trustees and/or management; the failure of Ramco-Gershenson's review of potential strategic and financial alternatives to generate any opportunities that enhance shareholder value; the ability of Ramco-Gershenson to enter into and consummate any transaction resulting from its review of strategic and financial alternatives or otherwise; the ability of Equity One successfully to integrate the operations and systems of acquired companies and properties; pending, threatened or future legal proceedings; and other risks, which are described in Equity One's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
